TAKE MY BREATH AWAY

Prom 1988

The 1988 Prom theme chosen by the Juniors was "Take My Breath Away." When you entered it was as if you were entering a fantasy land. One of the memorable moments was the crowning of he Queen, Angela Staley and the King, Mike Smith (top left). The Royal Court was (l. to R.) Mark Hoke, Tiffany Sharp, Jody Marsteller, and Charlie Marcum. It was indeed a night to remember.

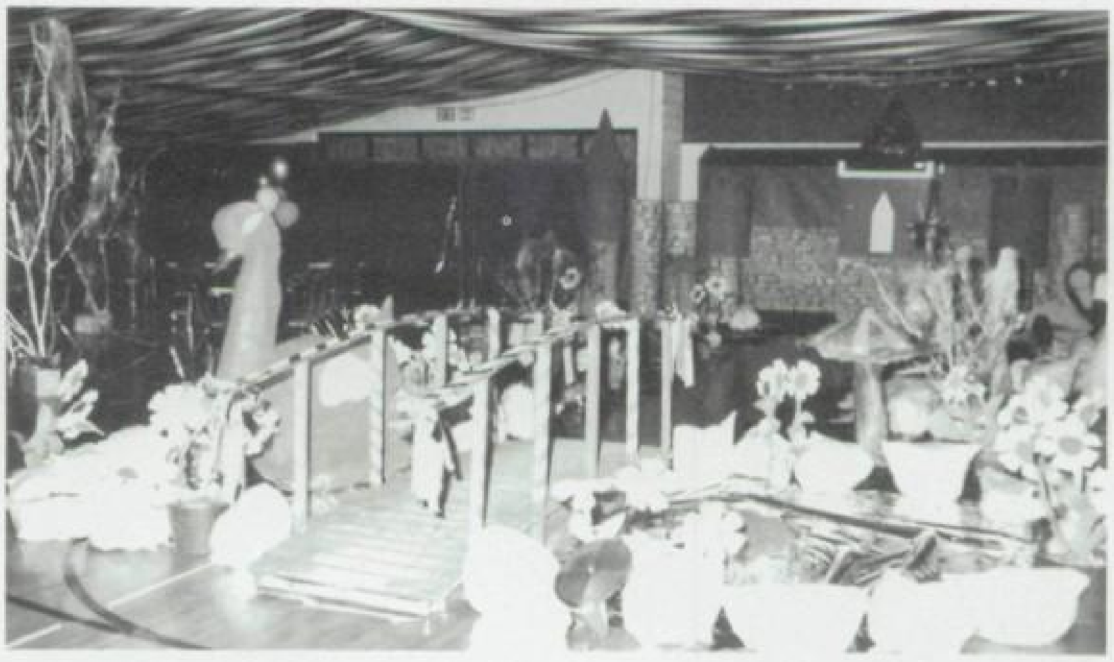

Another memorable moment was when the gals took off their garters and gave them to their dates (left). The sophomores served for the evening. They were (seated l. to r.) Holly Cram, Becky Gardner. (standing l. to r.) Eddie Robinson, Sharon Bean, Kay Phipps, Christian Eaton, Scott Spencer, Jackie Whitley, Tonya Walton. After the Prom the parents provided a Post Prom for even more excitement.

HOMECOMING 1987

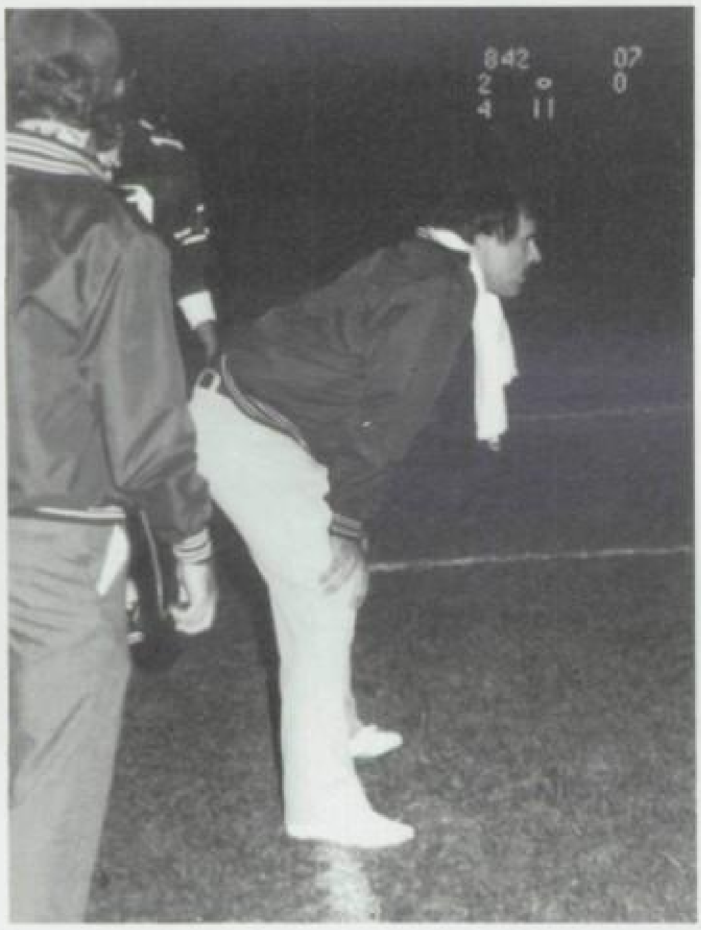

The 1987 Homecoming festivities were overshadowed by the 34-0 loss to the highly ranked Tri-West Bruins. The Cougars did not play their best game of the season, although halftime did provide some of the best entertainment of the year. The Regional-bound Marching Cougar Band played an outstanding arrangement of songs, including "Off The Line," "The Color Purple," "Broadway," and "Pictures at an Exhibition." After this, seniors Lisa McKinney, Angela Staley, and Stephanie Haler awaited the crowning of the 1987 North Putnam Homecoming Queen. While the band serenaded the candidates with a soft version of "The Color Purple," Stephanie Haler was named to this honor. Rounding out the Queen's Court were junior princess Darcie DeBoer, sophomore princess Teri Wilson, and freshman princess Heather Kiger.

MOCK WEDDING

Kim Wilcox and Robert Hensley pose for pictures after they are "married" on March 23, 1988, in the library of North Putnam.

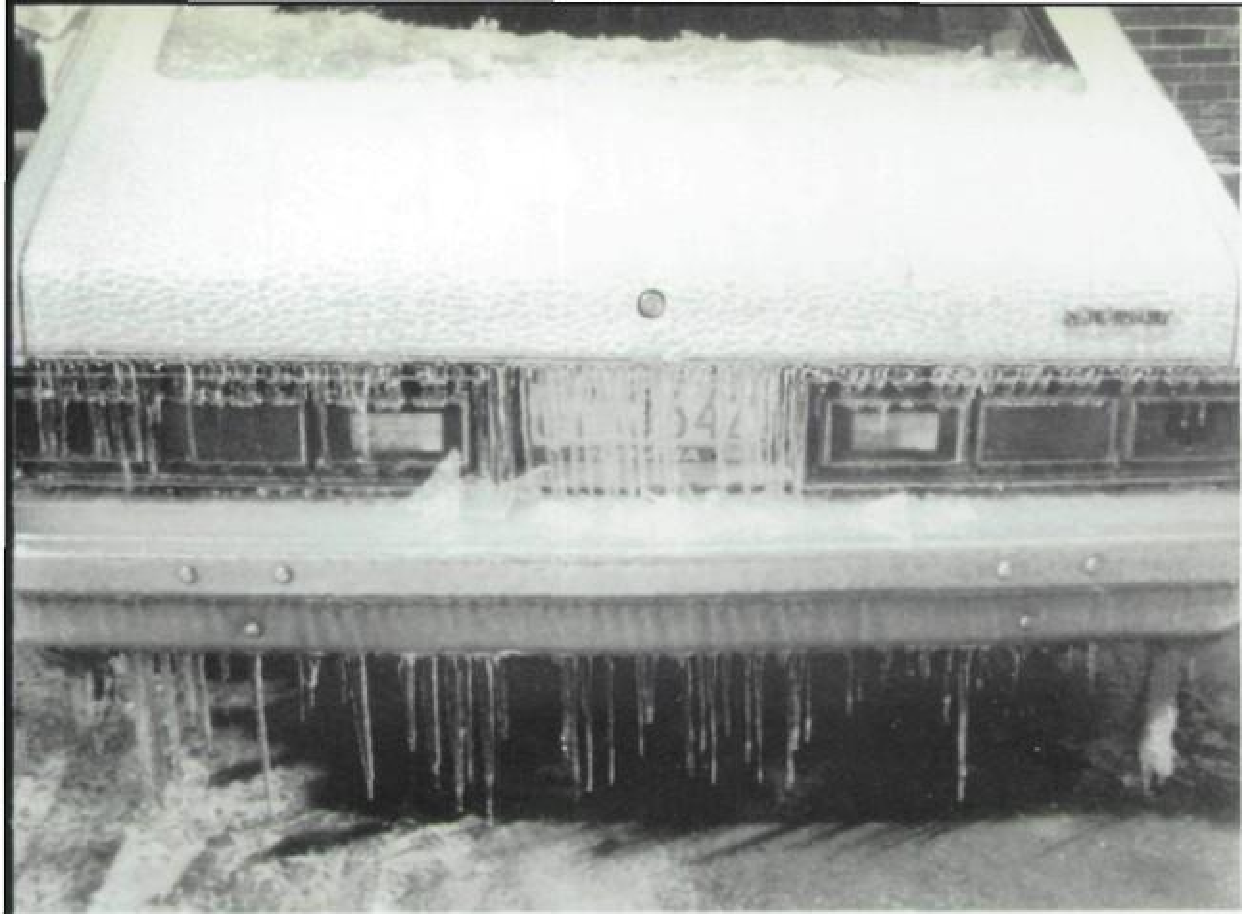

Members of the wedding are Kim Wolcox (bride), Robert Hensley (groom), Aimee McCarty (maid of honor), Stephanie Haler, Missie Ensor (brides maids), Mark McPherson (best man), and Matt Rees (groomsman).

Father of the bride, Mr. Lloyd Blubaum, poses with Bride Kim Wilcox. Mother of the bride was Mrs. Sandy Wilcox.

A traditional wedding ends with a traditional Kiss.

And we didn't get out of school!

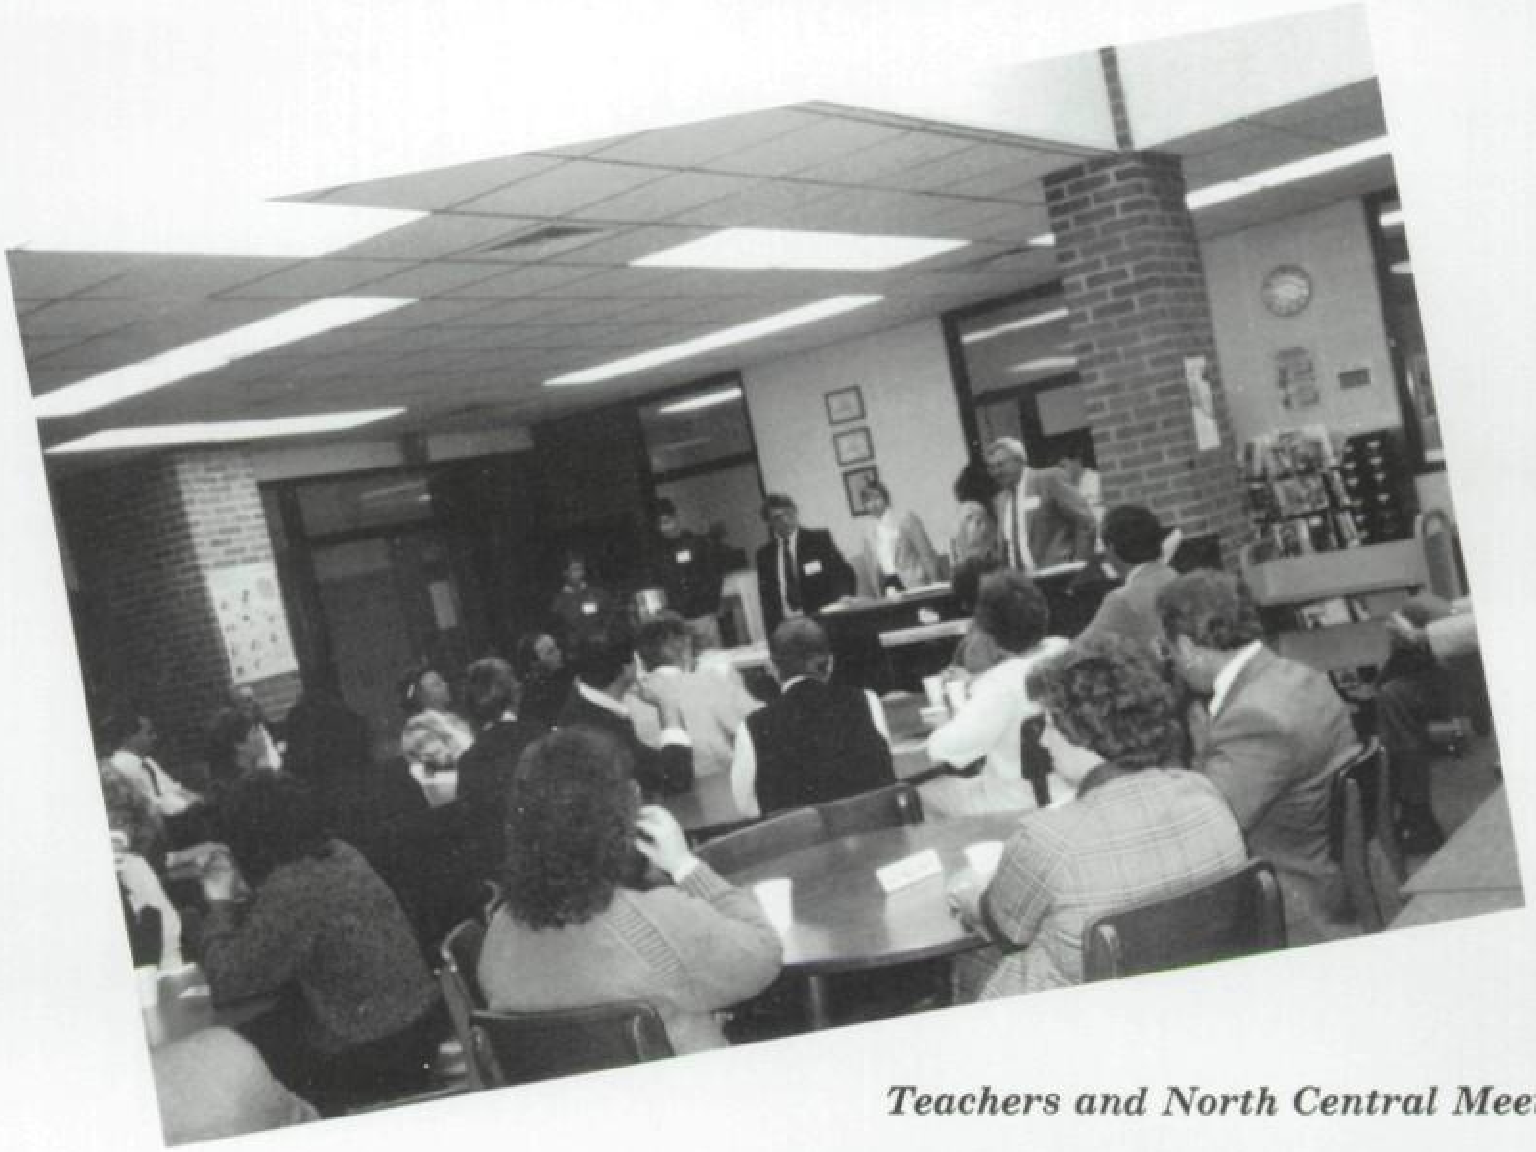

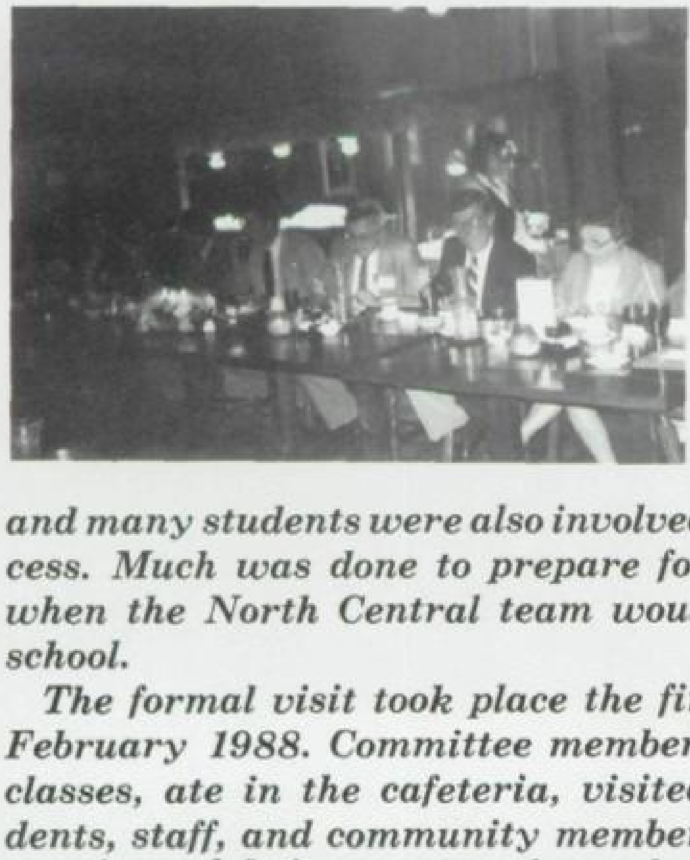

North Central Accreditation

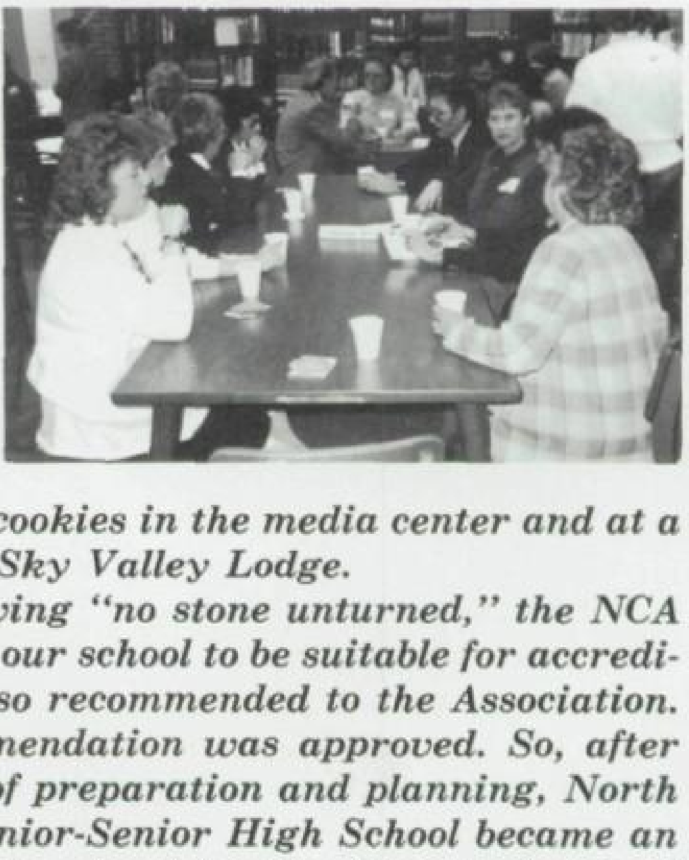

Teachers and North Central Meet

A new angle at North Putnam — accreditation — was facilitated by a steering committee that consisted of teachers and administrators. Mrs. Shirley Steward served as chairperson for the arduous task. Other committee members were teachers Mr. Bill Brothers, Mr. Roger Cook, Mrs. Linda Gjesvald, Mrs. Jacqueline McGaughey, Mr. John Moser, principal Mr. Bill Schad, and superintendent Dr. Thomas Rohr. All staff members, many community patrons, and many students were also involved in the process. Much was done to prepare for the week when the North Central team would visit the school.

The formal visit took place the first week of February 1988. Committee members sat in on classes, ate in the cafeteria, visited with students, staff, and community members, and had meetings of their own to evaluate the school. The NCA team got acquainted with the teachers over punch and cookies in the media center and at a banquet at Sky Valley Lodge.

After leaving "no stone unturned," the NCA team found our school to be suitable for accreditation and so recommended to the Association. The recommendation was approved. So, after two years of preparation and planning, North Putnam Junior-Senior High School became an accredited school in the North Central Association!

Row 1: Delana Hyten, Vicki Chadd, Jackie Whitley. Row 2: Benny Autt, Chris Hites, Mark Hoke, Hugh Martin, Darrin Whitaker, David Maish. Row 3: Coach Malone, Bob VanSickle, Robert Hensley, Mike Aynes.

It was a tough year for the Cougar wrestlers as there were only 4 returning lettermen. Lack of experience hurt the Cougars down the stretch, yet they still managed to put together a 4-9 record over the season. Junior Robert Hensly and Senior Hugh Martin were the teams most successful wrestlers, while Juniors Bill Martin and Darrin Whitaker and Senior Mark Hoke, provided good insight and help to the other team members.

Hugh in action!!!

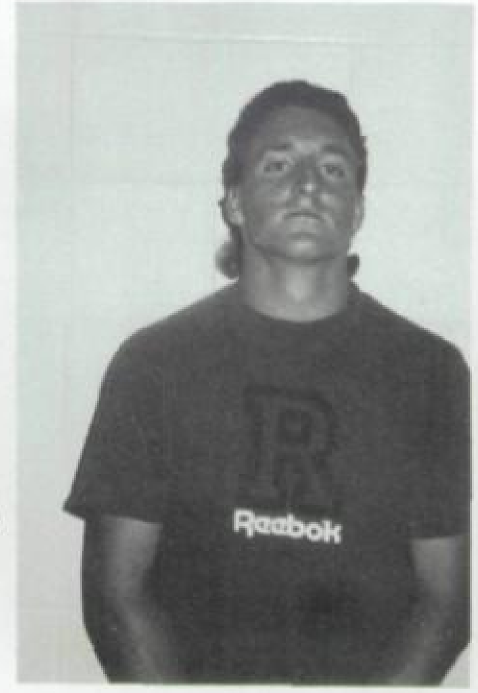

Here's Coach Malone showing Coach Griswald who really is the Boss!!!

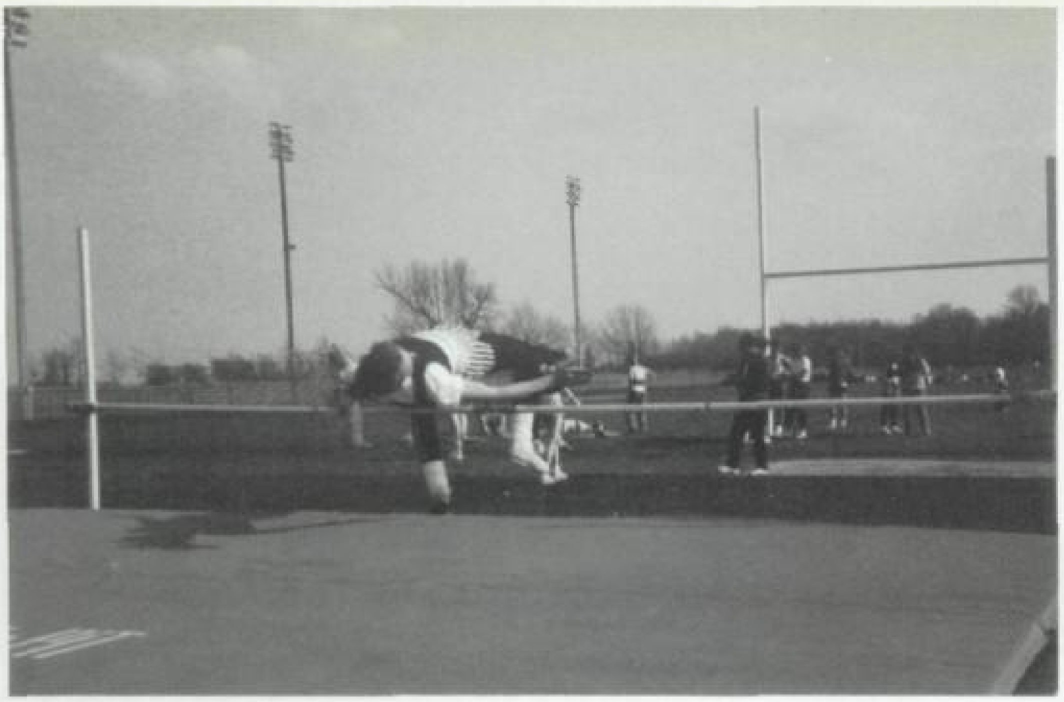

Senior wrestlers Mark Hoke and Hugh Martin provided some stability and experience to a very inexperienced Cougar team. Martin won the "Most Improved Wrestler" award and Hoke won the "Mental Attitude" award.

Junior Robert Hensley provided outstanding leadership to the team as he was the only Cougar wrestler to become a sectional champion. Robert was the Captain of the squad and he also won the "Most Valuable Wrestler" award.

Nice form, Heather!
